You're no longer eligible for the STAR property tax exemption.

Homeowners whose income is over $500,000 are not eligible for the Basic STAR ("School Tax Relief") property tax exemption. Eligibility is based on the combined incomes of

- owners who reside at the property, and
- any owner's spouse who resides at the property.

For 2012, income information from the 2010 tax year is used to determine eligibility. Information on file with the New York State Tax Department indicates that your household's income exceeds the maximum and you're no longer eligible for the tax exemption.

If you meet the eligibility requirements in the future, you may re-apply for the STAR exemption.
