Instructions

Certain not-for-profit and religious corporations are exempt from the New York State corporation franchise tax imposed by Article 9-A of the Tax Law (section 1-3.4(b)(6) of the Article 9-A regulations). File Form CT-247 to apply for exemption.

Generally, a corporation or an organization treated as a corporation must meet all of the following requirements to be tax exempt:

- It must be organized and operated as a not-for-profit organization.
- It must not have stock, shares, or certificates for stock or for shares. Not-for-profit corporations that issue stock are taxable under Article 9-A. However, for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, title holding companies as described in IRC section 501(c)(2) and collective investment entities as described in IRC section 501(c)(25) will be exempt from tax under Article 9-A. For additional information, see Technical Service Bureau Memorandum TSB-M-87(9)C.
- No part of the net earnings may benefit any officer, director, or member.
- It must be exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to subsection (a) of section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

If the organization meets all of the above requirements, it will be presumed to be exempt from tax under Article 9-A of the Tax Law. An organization denied exemption from taxation under the IRC will be presumed to be subject to tax under Article 9-A of the Tax Law.

Not-for-profit, nonstock organizations that are subject to the federal tax on unrelated business income are taxable under Article 13 of the New York State Tax Law if they pursue those unrelated business activities in New York State. File Form CT-13 to report those activities.

Organizations required to file federal Form 1120 may be taxable under Article 9-A of the Tax Law and may be required to file Form CT-3 or Form CT-4.

When filing Form CT-247, submit all documents granting or denying exemption from tax by the Internal Revenue Service, the corporation's articles of incorporation and its by-laws. Any changes in the corporation's federal tax status must be reported promptly to the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance.

Any exemption granted by the filing of Form CT-247 is strictly for New York State corporation franchise tax.

Any inquiry on the taxable status of an organization must be in writing, signed by an officer of the organization and mailed to the address below.

Refund of Franchise Taxes

If franchise taxes have been paid in error, request a refund by filing Form CT-8, Claim for Credit or Refund of Corporation Tax Paid. A housing development fund company must submit proof that it was organized under Article 11 of the Private Housing Finance Law.
