Instructions

General Information

Chapter 576 of the Laws of 1994 allows for the formation of limited liability companies (LLCs) and limited liability partnerships (LLPs) in New York State (domestic LLCs or LLPs). In addition, recognition is given under New York State law for LLCs and LLPs formed under the laws of other states (foreign LLCs and LLPs).

Both domestic LLCs and LLPs are required to register with the New York State Department of State. In addition, foreign LLCs and LLPs that wish to carry on or conduct business or activities in New York State must also register with the Department of State.

Taxpayers who have questions in this area should write to the New York State Department of State, 162 Washington Avenue, Albany NY 12231-0001 or call (518) 473-2494.

Change for 1995

Effective August 8, 1995, certain investment companies that are established and regulated under Article 12 of the New York State Banking Law will now be able to organize themselves as limited liability investment companies (LLICs). The LLIC option is available only to Article 12 investment companies that serve as holding companies for foreign banking operations. Throughout these instructions, the term limited liability company includes a limited liability investment company.

New York Tax Treatment of LLCs and LLPs

An LLC may be treated as a partnership or a corporation for federal income tax purposes, while an LLP is always treated as a partnership. New York State law conforms to this federal treatment. Accordingly, an LLC that is treated as a corporation for federal purposes must file a corporation franchise tax return.

An LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal purposes, and any LLP, must, if it meets the requirements (see Form IT-204-I), file a New York State partnership return using Form IT-204. Any LLC or LLP required to file Form IT-204 must also complete and file Form IT-204-LL. A single member LLC that is not treated as a partnership for federal purposes is not subject to the filing fee and is not required to file Form IT-204, Partnership Return or this form.

Filing Fee

Every domestic or foreign LLC, LLP or LLIC that is required to file a New York State partnership return and that has any income, gain, loss or deduction from New York sources must pay a New York State filing fee. The amount of the filing fee is $50 multiplied by the total number of members or partners in the LLC or LLP. However, the fee cannot be less than $325 or more than $10,000.

There is no proration of the filing fee if the LLC or LLP has a short taxable year for federal tax purposes.

Purpose of this Form

This form must be completed by every LLC or LLP required to file a partnership return as a means of remitting the state filing fee or to indicate why the LLC or LLP does not owe a fee for the current taxable year.

When to File

An LLC or LLP that is not requesting an extension of time to file Form IT-204 must attach this form to the front of Form IT-204 when it is filed. For calendar year 1995, the filing deadline is April 15, 1996. (If you are required to file your 1995 federal return at the IRS Service Center in Andover, Massachusetts, the filing date for your 1995 return is April 16, 1996.) A full remittance of the filing fee due must be attached to the form. If the LLC/LLP is requesting an extension of time to file, see Extension below.

Extension

An LLC or LLP that is requesting an extension of time to file Form IT-204 must complete and attach this form to the front of Form IT-370-PF, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File for Partnerships and Fiduciaries. The LLC or LLP must include with the extension request a full remittance of any filing fee due. There is no extension of time for payment of the filing fee. If the LLC or LLP fails to pay the full amount of filing fee with its extension request, it must pay interest and a late payment penalty of ½% per month, up to a maximum of 25% on the amount of fee not paid. There is no extension of time to file Form IT-204-LL or to pay the annual fee.

Line Instructions

Name and Address box — Enter the name, address and identification number exactly as it appears or will appear on Form IT-204. Also, enter the principal business activity, the date the business started and the contact person's telephone number.
