

Instructions for Form IT-201-X Amended Resident Income Tax Return

New York State • City of New York • City of Yonkers

IT-201-X-I

Purpose of Form IT-201-X

If after filing your 2001 New York State income tax return you realized you have made an error or if the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) makes changes to your federal return, you must file an amended New York State return to correct the error or report the changes.

Use 2001 Form IT-201-X if your original return was Form IT-100, Form IT-200 or Form IT-201. Use 2001 Form IT-203-X to amend nonresident and part-year resident Form IT-203 or if you mistakenly filed Form IT-100, IT-200, or IT-201, but you were a nonresident or part-year resident for 2001. To get forms to amend your returns for years before 2001, see Need help? on page 4.

Do not use Form IT-201-X to report a net operating loss carryback, to protest a paid assessment which was based on a statement of audit changes or to file a protective claim; use Form IT-113-X, Claim for Credit or Refund of Personal Income Tax. However, if you are reporting any of the above and some other change to your state return, you must file Form IT-201-X or the appropriate amended return, showing all changes; do not use Form IT-113-X in this case.

If you receive an assessment from the Tax Department, do not file an amended return strictly to protest the assessment. Follow the instructions you receive with the assessment.

When to file an amended return

File Form IT-201-X after you have filed your original return. Generally, Form IT-201-X must be filed within three years of the date the original return was filed or within two years of the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. A return filed early is considered filed on the due date.

If you file an amended federal return to make changes to your federal income, tax preference items, total taxable amount, capital gain or ordinary income portion of a lump-sum distribution, the amount of your earned income credit or credit for child and dependent care expenses, or the amount of your foreign tax credit affecting the computation of the resident credit for taxes paid to a province of Canada, you must also file an amended New York State return within 90 days of the date you amend your federal return. If the IRS changes any of these items, you must report these changes to the New York State Tax Department on an amended return within 90 days of the IRS final determination. If you do not agree with the IRS determination, you must still file an amended state return indicating your disagreement. To report changes for a tax year prior to 1988, use Form IT-115, Report of Federal Changes.

Amending other types of returns

Partnerships — A partnership must file Form IT-204 (marked Amended) to amend or report federal changes to partnership income, gain, loss or deduction; see the instructions for Form IT-204. Each partner must file Form IT-201-X to report his or her share of the changed items.

S corporation — An S corporation must file Form CT-3-S, CT-4-S, or CT-32-S (marked Amended) to amend or report federal changes to S corporation income, gain, loss or deduction; see the instructions for Form CT-3-S, CT-4-S, or CT-32-S. Each shareholder must file Form IT-201-X to report his or her share of the changed items.

Estates and trusts — An estate or trust must file Form IT-205 (marked Amended) to amend or report federal changes to estate or trust income, gain, loss or deduction; see the instructions for

Form IT-205. If the federal changes affect the distributable net income of the estate or trust, each beneficiary's share of any New York fiduciary adjustment or New York net change that applies to the federal changes must be reported on Form IT-201-X.

Nonresidents and part-year residents — If you are a New York State nonresident or part-year resident, you must report federal changes (to the extent that they affect your New York State income tax liability) on Form IT-203-X. For more information, see the instructions for Form IT-203-X.

Information on income, deductions, etc.

If you have any questions, such as what income is taxable or what expenses are deductible, or you need information about the use of federal figures on your New York return, see the instructions for the return you are amending. For telephone assistance, see Need help? on page 4.

Line instructions

If you are filing for a fiscal year, enter the month and day your tax year began, and the month, day and year that it ended at the top of the front page.

Name and address box

Enter your name, address, and social security number in the spaces provided at the top of the front page. If you are married and filing a joint return, also enter your spouse's name and social security number. For Privacy notification, see page 4 of these instructions. If your name(s) and address are not the same as shown on your original return, enter in Part IV the name(s) and address on your original return.

Item (A) — Filing status

Mark an "X" in only one box to show your correct filing status. Generally, you must use the same filing status for your state return that you used for your federal return. If you were not required to file a federal return, see the filing status section in the instructions for your original return for more information. If the filing status you mark is not the same filing status you marked on your original return, explain why in Part IV, Other changes.

If you file a joint amended return, both you and your spouse are generally responsible for the tax and any interest or penalties due on the return. This means that if one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to. However, you may qualify for innocent spouse relief. For details, see Form IT-285, Innocent Spouse Relief.

Item (B) — Can you be claimed as a dependent?

If your reply to item (B) is not the same as on your original return, explain why in Part IV, Other changes.

Item (E) — Is this return the result of federal audit changes?

If you are reporting changes made by the IRS, check the Yes box and complete questions 1, 2, and 3, and Part III, Summary of federal changes, on the back page. If not, check the No box.

Item (F) — City of New York residents and part-year residents only

If you (or your spouse, if filing a joint return) were a New York City resident or part-year resident during 2001 and you entered an amount on line 32, City of New York school tax credit, answer question 1 and, if applicable, question 2.

- (1) Number of months you lived in New York City in 2001 — Enter in the box the number of months during 2001 that you lived in New York City.
- (2) Number of months your spouse lived in New York City in 2001 — If you were married and marked an X in box 2 of Item A (Married filing joint return), and your spouse lived in New York City in 2001, enter in the box the number of months during 2001 that your spouse lived in New York City.

We need this information to help verify your New York City school tax credit.

All other taxpayers should leave the boxes at item (F) blank.

Line instructions for Form IT-200 and Form IT-201 filers

Column (A) — Enter the amounts from your return as originally filed, as adjusted by New York State or as you later amended it. The line instructions tell you where to get your entry from your original return.

Column (B) — Enter the increases or decreases you are making. Bracket all decreases. Explain all changes in Part III or Part IV and attach any necessary forms and schedules.

Column (C) — Add the increase in column (B) to the amount in column (A), or subtract the column (B) decrease from column (A). Enter the result in column (C).

If there are no changes in column (B), transfer the amount from column (A) to column (C).

Line 1 — Federal adjusted gross income — From Form IT-200, use line 8; from Form IT-201, use line 18. If you are amending your wages, salary income or other employee compensation, attach the wage and tax statement(s) you received, federal Form W-2 (Copy 2), since your original return was filed.

Line 2 — New York adjustments — From Form IT-200, use the net amount of the addition adjustment, lines 9 and 10, and the subtraction adjustments, lines 12 and 13; from Form IT-201, use the net amount of additions and subtractions. If a net subtraction, bracket the amount. For a list of additions to, and subtractions from, your federal adjusted gross income, see the 2001 instructions for Form IT-201.

Line 4 — New York deduction — From Form IT-200, use line 14; from Form IT-201, use line 34.

If your amended federal adjusted gross income amount on line 1 is more than $132,950 (more than $66,475 if you are married filing separately) and you itemized your deductions on your federal return, see the Tax computation section beginning on page 26 of the 2001 instructions for Form IT-201 to figure your New York deduction amount.

Check the box on line 4 to show which deduction you are claiming on your amended return, either standard or itemized:

- If your original return was Form IT-200 and you are still claiming the standard deduction, see the New York standard deduction table in the instructions for Form IT-200 for the amount to enter on line 4.
- If your original return was Form IT-200 and you are now claiming itemized deductions on your amended return, or if your original return was Form IT-201, see the 2001 instructions for Form IT-201 for information on claiming your deduction.

If your amended New York adjusted gross income is more than $100,000, you may be allowed only a percentage of your New York itemized deductions. See the instructions for Form IT-201.

Line 6 — Dependent exemptions — From Form IT-200, use line 15; from Form IT-201, use line 36. If you are not changing the number of your dependent exemptions, enter in columns (A) and (C) on line 6 the number of dependent exemptions claimed on your original New York return.

If you are changing the number of your dependent exemptions, your entry in column (C) should be the same as the number of dependent exemptions claimed on your amended federal return or as adjusted by the IRS.

Line 8 — New York State tax — Find your New York State tax on the line 7 amount using the New York State Tax Table in the 2001 instruction booklet for the original return you filed, Form IT-200 or Form IT-201. However, if the line 3, column (C) amount is $100,000 or more, see the instructions for line 38 in the 2001 Form IT-201 instruction booklet.

Line 9 — New York State household credit — From Form IT-200, use line 20; from Form IT-201, use line 39. To refigure your New York State household credit:

— Form IT-200 - use the tables in the instructions for Form IT-200.

However, if the line 7, column (C) amount is $65,000 or more, you must use the City of New York Tax Table in the 2001 Form IT-201 instruction booklet to figure your tax.

Do not complete line 15 if you were a New York City resident for only part of 2001. Attach Form IT-360.1, Change of City Resident Status (marked Amended), if you are amending your part-year New York City resident tax. Give the tax representative the amount of tax on line 43, the year of your amended return and the date of payment. Identify and enter the amount of interest below line 43.

If you want to write instead of calling, include the above information in your request for the Tax Department to figure the interest amount and mail your request to:

Part II — Partnership or S corporation

If you have reported adjustments to partnership or S corporation income, gain, loss, or deduction, complete Part II. Give the partnership or S corporation's name, identifying number, principal business activity, and address.

Part III — Summary of federal changes

If you are reporting changes made by the Internal Revenue Service, complete this part by entering the information requested as it appears on your final federal report of examination changes. If you need more space, show further changes in Part IV.

If you did not concede the federal audit changes and checked the No box in question 2 at item (E), explain why in Part III (section 659 of the New York State Tax Law).

Part IV — Other changes

You must complete Part IV to explain all changes to information or amounts reported on your original return that are not explained in Part III.

If you checked the No box at item (C), you must explain why you are amending your New York return.

Line 54 — Authorization for paid preparer — If you want to authorize the Tax Department to discuss this amended return with the paid preparer listed at the bottom of your Form IT-201-X, mark an "X" in the Yes box. If you do not want to authorize the Tax Department to discuss your return with that paid preparer, mark an "X" in the No box.

By marking an "X" in the Yes box (and only the Yes box), you authorize the paid preparer or other employees of a designated tax return preparer firm to receive confidential information from the Tax Department relevant to this return. This does not provide a paid preparer with authority to make any binding commitments on your behalf with the Tax Department.

If you want to designate an individual to represent you or otherwise act on your behalf, such as by executing waivers or closing agreements, you must file Form POA-1, Power of Attorney, making that designation with the Tax Department.

Copies of statutory tax notices or documents (such as Notice of Deficiency) will not be sent to paid preparers. If you want copies of statutory tax documents sent to a representative, you must file Form POA-1.

Sign and date your return

You must sign and date your amended return. If you are married and filing a joint return, you must each sign the return. Your return cannot be processed if you do not sign it.

Anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your return. The preparer required to sign your return must sign it by hand; signature stamps or labels are not acceptable. If someone prepares your return and does not charge you, the paid preparer's area should not be filled in.

Note to paid preparers – When signing a taxpayer's New York State income tax return, you must use the same identification number that you used on the taxpayer's federal return, either your social security number or your federal preparer tax identification number (PTIN). If you did not prepare a federal income tax return for the taxpayer, you must use your PTIN if you have one; otherwise, use your social security number.

Enter your daytime telephone number including the area code. This voluntary entry will enable the Tax Department to correct minor errors or omissions by calling you rather than writing or sending back your return.

Mail your amended return to: State Processing Center,
PO Box 61000, Albany NY 12261-0001.

If you wish to use a delivery service other than the U.S. Postal Service, contact the Tax Department; see Need help? below.
