

Nonobligated Spouse Allocation

Who qualifies — You qualify as a nonobligated spouse if you have income (such as wages or interest) and prepaid taxes (such as withholding or estimated tax payments) to report on a joint return, or you are going to file a joint return for any refundable credit(s) and (1) you want to disclaim your spouse's past-due legally enforceable debt to a New York State agency and (2) you do not want to apply your part of the joint refund or refundable credit to a debt owed solely by your spouse.

Part I — Information about the joint return for which this claim is filed

Enter the following information exactly as it is shown on the tax return for which you are filing this claim. The spouse's name and social security number shown first on that tax return must also be shown first below.

First name, middle initial, and last name shown first on the return	Social security number shown first	If nonobligated spouse, check here <input type="checkbox"/>
First name, middle initial, and last name shown second on the return	Social security number shown second	If nonobligated spouse, check here <input type="checkbox"/>

Did you receive a Notice of Claim Against Your Income Tax Refund? Yes No

If Yes, please attach a copy to this form. Include copies of all federal W-2 forms of both spouses.

Part II — Allocation of items on the joint tax return between spouses

Allocated items	(a) Allocated to nonobligated spouse	(b) Allocated to other spouse	(c) Amount shown on joint return
Lines 1a, 1b, and 1c Income — Allocate separate income to the spouse who earned it. Allocate joint income, such as interest earned on a joint bank account, as you determine. Be sure to allocate all income shown on the joint return. (Form IT-100 filers, see instructions)
1a Wages (from Forms IT-200, IT-201, and IT-203, line 1)
1b All other income — Identify the type and amount below (from Form IT-200, lines 2 through 5; Form IT-201, lines 2 through 15; Form IT-203, lines 2 through 15, Federal amount column). Total ▶
1c Total income (add lines 1a and 1b)
2 Federal adjustments to income — Allocate separate adjustments, such as an IRA deduction, to the spouse to whom they belong (from Form IT-200, line 7; Form IT-201, line 17; Form IT-203, line 17, Federal amount column).
3 Total New York State/city of New York/city of Yonkers taxes (Form IT-200, add lines 21 and 27; Form IT-201, add lines 44 and 55; Form IT-203, add lines 48 and 52)
4a Income tax withheld — Allocate New York State/city of New York/city of Yonkers income tax withheld to each spouse as shown on federal Forms W-2. Be sure to attach copies of these forms to your tax return, or to Form IT-280 if you are filing it by itself.
4b Estimated tax payments and amount paid with extension Form IT-370 — Allocate joint estimated tax payments (Form IT-201, line 67; Form IT-203, line 60)
4c Total prepayments (add lines 4a and 4b)

Note: The Tax Department will figure the amount of any refund due the nonobligated spouse.

InstructionsHow to file

Attach the completed Form IT-280 to the front of your original Form IT-200, IT-201, IT-203, IT-214, or NYC-210. We need the information on it to process your refund as quickly as possible. Form IT-280 can be electronically filed with any electronically filed returns. Once you have filed your return, you cannot file an amended return solely to disclaim your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support liability, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency. However, you will be notified if your refund is applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency and you did not attach Form IT-280 to your return. You will then have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280.

Complete Parts I and II of this form, and sign and date Part III in the spaces provided. If you are filing Form IT-214 or Form NYC-210 and do not have to file an income tax return, fill in only your name and the social security number of both spouses, and sign and date this form.

If you are filing any one of the following credit forms alone (because you did not claim the credit(s) when you filed your return on Form IT-200, IT-201, or IT-203), you must file Form IT-280 with the credit forms:

- IT-215, Claim for Earned Income Credit
- IT-216, Claim for Child and Dependent Care Credit
- IT-217, Claim for Farmers' School Tax Credit

Form IT-100 filers

You cannot file Form IT-280 with Form IT-100. However, if you originally filed Form IT-100, and you are notified that your refund has been applied against your spouse's defaulted student loan, past-due support, or past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency, you will have ten days from the date of notification to file Form IT-280. Complete Parts I and II of this form, and sign and date Part III in the spaces provided. Enter your total federal income on line 1. Your total federal income on Form IT-100 is the total of lines 2, 3, 5, and 6. Enter your federal adjustment(s) to income on line 2. Your federal adjustment to income on Form IT-100 is the line 7 amount.

Note: New York Form IT-280 is used only to protect your portion of a joint refund from being applied against a debt owed solely by your spouse. This form should not be used to request innocent spouse relief.

There are three forms of innocent spouse relief: innocent spouse, separation of liability, and equitable relief. You may qualify for relief from full or partial tax liability on a joint return as an innocent spouse if:

- (1) there is an understatement of tax on a joint return because of an omission or error involving income, deduction, credit, or basis;
- (2) you can show that when you signed the return you did not know and had no reason to know of the understatement; and (3) taking into account all the facts and circumstances, it would be unfair to hold you liable for the understated tax. You may also request a separation of liability for any understated tax on a joint return if you and your spouse or former spouse are no longer married, or are legally separated, or have lived apart at all times during the 12-month period prior to the date of filing for relief. If you don't qualify as an innocent spouse or for separation of liability, you may qualify for equitable relief if you can show that, taking into account all the facts and circumstances, you should not be held liable for any understatement or underpayment of tax. For more information, see Form IT-285, Request for Innocent Spouse Relief (and Separation of Liability and Equitable Relief).
