General information

Tax Law section 14-a allows an eligible taxpayer subject to tax under Tax Law Articles 9-A or 22 to claim a tax credit against their corporation franchise or personal income tax liability. The credit is equal to the sum, or pro-rata share of the sum, of the taxes imposed under sections 186-a, 186-c, 189, and 189-a of Tax Law Article 9 (but only for gas, electricity, steam, water, or refrigeration, or for gas, electricity, steam, water, or refrigeration services used or consumed by an industrial or manufacturing business (IMB) in New York. The IMB credit may be claimed for taxes that were either paid by or passed through to an IMB on or after January 1, 2000). The credit applies to tax years ending after January 1, 2000, and expires for tax years ending on or after January 1, 2007.

For Article 9-A taxpayers, the credit may not reduce the taxpayer's tax liability to less than either (1) the greater of the tax on minimum taxable income or (2) the fixed dollar minimum tax.

For both Article 9-A and Article 22 taxpayers, any portion of this credit that cannot be applied to the current year's tax liability may be refunded without interest, or applied as a payment against next year's tax.

Eligibility

An eligible industrial or manufacturing business is a business that during the tax year is:

- Principally engaged in manufacturing, processing, assembling, refining, mining, extracting, farming, agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, viticulture, or commercial fishing.
- · An industrial waste treatment facility or an air pollution control facility.
- · Principally engaged in research and development.
- · Engaged in any one or more of the above activities.

If a business has facilities, branches, or divisions both within and outside of New York State, the test applies to the activities of the entire business. Each business entity within a combined tax filing group makes the determination separately.

Eligible taxpayers include corporations that are IMBs, partners in partnerships (including members of limited liability companies (LLCs) that elect to be treated as partnerships) that are IMBs, shareholders of New York State S corporations that are IMBs, beneficiaries of estates and trusts that are IMBs, and sole proprietors of IMBs.
