Instructions for Form IT-215
Claim for Earned Income Credit
New York State • New York City

IT-215-I

This form may be e-filed as an attachment to an e-filed return; you cannot e-file this form by itself.

General information

New for 2006

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, and before January 1, 2013, New York State full-year residents who are noncustodial parents and pay child support may be eligible for the noncustodial parent New York State earned income credit. This credit may be claimed instead of the New York State earned income credit. See Form IT-209, Claim for Noncustodial Parent New York State Earned Income Credit, for further information on this new credit.

Who qualifies

To qualify for the New York State earned income credit (NYS EIC) you must:

- have claimed the federal earned income credit for tax year 2006; and
- file (or have filed) a New York State income tax return for 2006.

To qualify for the New York City earned income credit (NYC EIC) you must:

- have been a full-year or part-year resident of New York City for 2006;
- have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2006; and
- file (or have filed) a New York State income tax return for 2006.

Note: Because of the different methods for computing the two credits (NYS EIC and NYC EIC), if you qualify for the NYC EIC, you may end up with a NYC EIC amount even if you do not end up with a NYS EIC amount (line 16 of Form IT-215). Be sure to complete Worksheet C, New York City earned income credit, on page 3 to compute your NYC EIC. Also be sure to attach Form IT-215 to your income tax return.

If you are a resident or part-year resident, you may qualify for a refund of any earned income credit in excess of your tax liability. Nonresidents of New York State do not qualify for a refund of the New York State earned income credit.

How to claim the credit

To claim the NYS EIC, you must complete Form IT-215 using the information from your federal return, worksheets, and, if applicable, the federal earned income credit line instructions.

To claim the NYC EIC, you must:

- complete Form IT-215, using the information from your federal return, worksheets, and, if applicable, the federal earned income credit line instructions; and
- complete Worksheet C, New York City earned income credit, on page 3.

Important reminder to file a complete return

You must complete all required schedules and forms that make up your return, and include all pages of those forms and schedules when you file. Attach only those forms and schedules that apply to your return, and be sure that you have made all required entries. Returns that are missing required pages or that have pages with missing entries are considered incomplete and cannot be processed, and may subject taxpayers to penalty and interest.

Where to file

If you have previously filed your 2006 New York State income tax return and you answered Yes at line 3, mail your completed Form IT-215 to:

STATE PROCESSING CENTER
PO BOX 61000
ALBANY NY 12261-0001

Line instructions

All resident, nonresident, and part-year resident filers complete lines 1 through 17 as applicable.

All part-year New York State resident filers must also complete lines 18 through 26.

All New York City residents and part-year residents must also complete lines 27 and 28.

Line 1 — You must have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2006 in order to claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits.

Line 2 — You cannot claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits if your investment income is more than $2,800. For most people, investment income is the total amount of:

- taxable interest (from line 8a of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- tax-exempt interest (from line 8b of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- ordinary dividends income (from line 9a of federal Form 1040 or 1040A); and
- capital gain net income from line 10 of Form 1040A or line 13 of Form 1040 (if more than zero).

For additional information on what qualifies as investment income, see federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

Line 3 — File Form IT-215 with your original 2006 New York State income tax return. If you have already filed your original return, you may file Form IT-215 by itself. Mail your form to: State Processing Center, PO Box 61000, Albany NY 12261-0001.

If you haven't previously filed your income tax return for this year, you must file this claim with a return.

Line 4 — If you claimed qualifying children on your 2006 federal Schedule EIC, list the same children (up to two) in the spaces provided on line 4 of Form IT-215. If you claimed more than two qualifying children on your 2006 federal Schedule EIC, enter the required information for two qualifying children in the spaces provided on the form and attach a statement to your return with the required identifying information for each additional child. Be sure to include your name and social security number (SSN) on your attachment.

Caution: To be eligible to claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits, you must provide a correct and valid SSN for each child listed on line 4, and on an attached statement, if any.

If you have applied for an SSN by filing federal Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration, but you have not received it by April 16, 2007:

- 1) File Form IT-370 requesting an automatic extension of time to file until October 15, 2007. (This extension does not give you any extra time to pay any tax owed. You should pay any New York taxes you expect to owe to avoid interest or penalty charges. For more information, see Form IT-370, Application for Automatic Six-Month Extension of Time to File for Individuals.) or
- 2) File your return on time without claiming the earned income credits and do not attach Form IT-215. After receiving the SSN, file Form IT-215 and claim the credits.

Be sure to mark an X in the box under the heading Full-time student if your child was born before 1988 and was a full-time student under 24. Mark an X in this box only if you marked the Yes box on your 2006 federal Schedule EIC, line 4a.

Be sure to mark an X in the box under the heading Person with disability if your child was born before 1988 and was permanently disabled during any part of 2006. Mark an X in this box only if you marked the Yes box on your 2006 federal Schedule EIC, line 4b.

If you marked the box Person with disability, and your qualifying person is 24 years of age or older, you must attach a letter from a physician stating that the person is disabled. When we receive a letter from your qualifying person's doctor stating that your qualifying person is, by definition, permanently and totally disabled, we will keep that statement on file, and you will not have to provide this information again.

Line 17 — Complete this line only if your filing status is ③, Married filing separate return. See the instructions for Form IT-150, IT-201, or IT-203 to determine your filing status.

If you are attaching this claim to your original return, show the portion of line 16 that you are claiming as your share of the NYS EIC, and follow the appropriate instructions below. Remember, while the NYS EIC can be split in any manner you and your spouse agree to, the combined amount of both spouses' New York State credits cannot be more than the amount on line 16.

- Residents — Enter the line 17 amount on Form IT-150, line 40, or Form IT-201, line 65.
- Nonresidents — Enter the line 17 amount on Form IT-203, line 43.

Part-year New York State residents only

Lines 18 through 26 need to be completed only by part-year New York State residents claiming the NYS EIC who are filing, or have previously filed, Form IT-203, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, for this year. The amounts for these lines can be found on the appropriate lines of Form IT-203 or Form IT-203-ATT, Other Tax Credits and Taxes, or their instructions (Form IT-203-I).

The NYS EIC must first reduce your tax liability to zero before the remaining excess NYS EIC is eligible to be refunded. The amount to be refunded will be based on the ratio of resident period income to the combined income from both the resident and nonresident periods.

Line 25 — Divide line 23 by line 24 and round the result to the fourth decimal place. (Do not enter more than 100% (1.0000) even if your actual result is more than 100%.) If the result is zero percent (0%), you have no remaining excess earned income credit available to be refunded. Do not complete line 26.

Line 26 — If line 25 is greater than 0%, multiply line 22 by line 25. If you answered No at line 3, enter the line 26 amount on Form IT-203-ATT, line 10, and attach Form IT-215 to your Form IT-203. This amount represents the refundable portion of your part-year resident NYS EIC.

Note to paid preparers

When signing a taxpayer's New York State income tax return, you must use the same number (social security number of federal preparers tax identification number) that you use when preparing federal income tax returns. For more information relating to the signing of returns by a paid preparer and other requirements relating to paid preparers, see Publication 58, Information for Income Tax Return Preparers.

Instructions for completing Worksheet C, New York City earned income credit, below:

Line 1 — You must have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2006 and have completed Form IT-215 in order to claim the NYC

EIC. Because of the different methods in computing the two credits (NYS EIC and NYC EIC), if you qualify for the NYC EIC, you will end up with an NYC EIC amount even if you do not end up with a NYS EIC amount (line 16 of Form IT-215 is 0).

Line 4 — Complete this line only if your New York City filing status is Married filing separate return. See the instructions for Form IT-150, IT-201, or IT-203 to determine your filing status.

Remember that while the NYC EIC can be split in any manner you and your spouse agree to, the combined amount of both spouses' New York City credits cannot be more than the amount on line 3. If you are a full-year New York City resident, enter this amount on Form IT-215, line 27; also enter on Form IT-150, line 45, or on Form IT-201, line 70. If you are a part-year New York City resident, continue with line 5.

Lines 6 and 7 — Part-year New York City residents must also enter this amount on Form IT-215, line 28.

Note: If your filing status is married filing a joint return, you and your spouse had different New York City resident periods, and you are filing separate Forms IT-360.1, enter on lines 6 and 7 both spouses' combined (total) amounts from both Forms IT-360.1.
