The combined reporting rules for taxpayers subject to tax under Articles 9-A, 32, and 33 have changed. Effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2008, a captive real estate investment trust (REIT) or captive regulated investment company (RIC) must file a combined return with its closest related corporation that directly or indirectly owns or controls over 50% of the captive REIT or RIC. A qualified REIT subsidiary must join the combined return of its captive REIT parent. For the most recent information on the combined reporting requirements, visit our Web site (at www.nystax.gov).

Note: All information in this statement is subject to review and adjustment by the Audit Division to determine if the group meets the legal requirements for filing a combined return.

This statement is to be filed only by corporations that are forming a new combined group. Complete the Combined filer group listing on this statement to show the current information about the new combined group (attach additional copies if necessary). Existing combined groups will be sent a preprinted statement each year to verify the members of the group and to add or remove any corporations from the group.

Please submit this form, prior to the due date of the combined franchise tax return, directly to: NYS Tax Department Combined Filer Services Group, W A Harriman Campus, Albany NY 12227, to expedite the recording of your group information. If you have changes to the group information after filing Form CT-51, indicate the changes on a copy of the previously submitted Form CT-51 and attach it to the return. If you have not previously submitted Form CT-51, you must submit the form with the filing of your combined corporate franchise tax return to the address on the return.

Please enter below the name, address, and telephone number of an authorized individual whom we may contact to clarify information if needed. By returning this statement for the combined group, the taxpayers in the combined group are authorizing the representative named below to receive and provide tax information for the combined group, including the parent and all subsidiaries.
