Claim for Earned Income Credit

IT-215-I

New York State • New York City

General information

Noncustodial Parent New York State Earned Income Credit

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2006, and before January 1, 2013, New York State full-year residents who are noncustodial parents and pay child support may be eligible for the noncustodial parent New York State earned income credit. This credit may be claimed instead of the New York State earned income credit. See Form IT-209, Claim for Noncustodial Parent New York State Earned Income Credit, for further information on this credit.

Who qualifies

To qualify for the New York State earned income credit (NYS EIC) you must have claimed the federal earned income credit for tax year 2011.

To qualify for the New York City earned income credit (NYC EIC) you must:

- have been a full-year or part-year resident of New York City for 2011; and
- have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2011.

Note: Because of the different methods for computing the two credits (NYS EIC and NYC EIC), if you qualify for the NYC EIC, you may end up with a NYC EIC amount even if you do not end up with a NYS EIC amount (line 16 of Form IT-215). Be sure to complete Worksheet C, New York City earned income credit, on page 3 to compute your NYC EIC.

If you are a resident or part-year resident, you may qualify for a refund of any earned income credit in excess of your tax liability. Nonresidents of New York State do not qualify for a refund of the NYS EIC.

How to claim the credit

To claim the NYS EIC, you must complete Form IT-215 using the information from your federal return, worksheets, and, if applicable, the federal earned income credit line instructions. You must file Form IT-215 with your 2011 New York State income tax return.

To claim the NYC EIC, you must:

- complete Form IT-215, using the information from your federal return, worksheets, and, if applicable, the federal earned income credit line instructions;
- complete Worksheet C, New York City earned income credit, on page 3; and
- file Form IT-215 with your 2011 New York State income tax return if you qualify for the credit(s).

Line instructions

See the instructions for your tax return for the Privacy notification or if you need help contacting the Tax Department.

All resident, nonresident, and part-year resident filers complete lines 1 through 17 as applicable.

All part-year New York State resident filers must also complete lines 18 through 26.

All New York City residents and part-year residents must also complete lines 27 and 28.

Line 1 — You must have claimed the federal earned income credit for 2011 in order to claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits.

Line 2 — You cannot claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits if your investment income is more than $3,150. For most people, investment income is the total amount of:

- taxable interest (from line 8a of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- tax-exempt interest (from line 8b of federal Form 1040 or 1040A);
- ordinary dividends income (from line 9a of federal Form 1040 or 1040A); and
- capital gain net income from line 10 of Form 1040A or line 13 of Form 1040 (if more than zero).

For additional information on what qualifies as investment income, see federal Publication 596, Earned Income Credit.

Line 3 — File Form IT-215 with your 2011 New York State income tax return. If you have already filed your return, you must file an amended return to claim the credit.

Form IT-215 cannot be filed by itself. You must file this claim with a return.

Line 4 — If you claimed qualifying children on your 2011 federal Schedule EIC, list the same children (up to three) in the spaces provided on line 4 of Form IT-215. If you claimed more than three qualifying children on your 2011 federal Schedule EIC, enter the required information for three qualifying children in the spaces provided on the form and attach a statement to your return with the required identifying information for each additional child. Be sure to include your name and social security number (SSN) on your attachment.

Caution: To be eligible to claim the New York State and New York City earned income credits, you must provide a correct and valid SSN for each child listed on line 4, and on an attached statement, if any.

If you have applied for a SSN by filing federal Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration, but you have not received it by your return due date:

- 1) File IT-370, Application for Automatic Six-Month Extension of Time to File for Individuals, requesting an automatic extension of time to file. (This extension does not give you any extra time to pay any tax owed. You should pay any New York taxes you expect to owe to avoid interest or penalty charges. For more information, see IT-370.) or
- 2) File your return on time without claiming the earned income credits and do not attach Form IT-215. After receiving the SSN, file an amended NYS return and claim the credit(s).

The amounts for these lines can be found on the appropriate lines of Form IT-203 or Form IT-203-ATT, Other Tax Credits and Taxes, or their instructions (Form IT-203-I).
