Instructions

General information

The Empire Zone (EZ) capital tax credit has expired. For tax years beginning on or after April 1, 2014, you may only claim an EZ capital tax credit carryover or recapture from previous years.

You may continue to use any credit carryovers from previous years against your tax liability. However, if your business was required to obtain an EZ retention certificate but was denied one, you will not be eligible to claim the carryover credit attributable to investments in a certified EZ business. You do not need an EZ retention certificate to claim the carryover of credit from contributions to community development projects.

The credit may not exceed the lesser of:

- the tax due under Article 22, or
- 50% of the tax imposed by Article 22 section 601, without regard to any credit.

Any amount of the carryover of credit not deductible in the current tax year may be carried over to be deducted from the tax for succeeding tax years.

Partnerships: Fill out this form only if you are reporting a recapture of the EZ capital tax credit.

Schedule C – Recapture of EZ capital tax credit

If a contribution is recovered by the taxpayer that was the basis for the allowance of the credit, and the recovery occurs within 36 months from the close of the tax year when the credit was allowed, the difference between the credit taken and the credit allowed must be added back.

Column C – For recapture purposes, the amount of the credit to be added back must be the portion of the payment or contribution recovered, multiplied by one of the following percentages:

- 100%, if the recovery occurs within the tax year or within 12 months of the close of the tax year for which the credit was allowed
- 67%, if the recovery occurs more than 12 months, but not more than 24 months, after the end of the tax year for which the credit was allowed
- 33%, if the recovery occurs more than 24 months, but not more than 36 months, after the end of the tax year for which the credit was allowed

Line 15 – This information should be provided to you by your partnership, New York S corporation, or estate or trust.
