New York State Modifications

CT-225-I

All citations are to New York State Tax Law sections unless specifically noted otherwise.

General information

Who must file

You must complete Form CT-225 and attach it to Form CT-3, General Business Corporation Franchise Tax Return, CT-3-S, New York S Corporation Franchise Tax Return, or CT-33, Life Insurance Corporation Franchise Tax Return, to report certain New York additions to, and certain New York subtractions from, federal income that are entered on:

- Form CT-3, Part 3, lines 2 and 4
- Form CT-34-SH, New York S Corporation Shareholder's Information Schedule, lines 3 and 5
- Form CT-33, lines 71 and 79

A corporation filing as a member of a combined group under Tax Law Article 9-A or 33 must file Form CT-225-A, New York State Modifications (for filers of combined franchise tax returns) and Form CT-225-A/B, Group Member's Detail Spreadsheet, (if applicable), instead of Form CT-225.

General instructions

Form CT-225 is used to inform the Tax Department which additions to and subtractions from federal taxable income (FTI) a New York C corporation is reporting, where such additions and subtractions do not have a specific reporting line on Form CT-3 or CT-33. For Article 9-A, an alien corporation that under any provision of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) is not treated as a domestic corporation, as defined in IRC section 7701, reads FTI to mean entire taxable income, gain, or loss, that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the U.S., as determined under IRC section 882. Since the New York C corporation is required to make the addition or subtraction modification, the required modifications are set forth in Tax Law Article 9-A (for general business corporations) or Article 33 (for life insurance corporations).

New York S corporations file Form CT-225 to inform the Tax Department which modifications are being reported in summation on Form CT-34-SH, lines 3 and 5. Therefore, when a New York S corporation reports a modification on this form, a shareholder of the New York S corporation must add or subtract his or her share of the modification from his or her federal adjusted gross income (AGI) when computing his or her New York AGI. Since the shareholder is ultimately required to make the addition or subtraction modification, the required modifications are set forth in Tax Law Article 22.

The addition and subtraction modifications are reported on this form using numbers assigned to each modification. Schedule A is used to report additions and Schedule B is used to report subtractions. See New York State addition and subtraction modification charts at the end of these instructions for a listing of the modifications. An X in a column under a specific form means the modification in that row may need to be reported by a filer of that specific form.

In either Schedule A or Schedule B, Part 1, use the modification number with the prefix of A or S to report modifications generated by the entity filing this Form CT-225. In either Schedule A or Schedule B, Part 2, use the modification number with the prefix of EA or ES to report that the filer's share of these modifications flow through to the entity filing this Form CT-225 from a partnership, estate, or trust.

You may have the same modification number listed in both Parts 1 and 2 of either Schedule A or B. For example, a corporation uses addition modification number A-212 in Schedule A, Part 1, for environmental remediation insurance premiums it deducted in computing federal income and for which it is taking a New York State tax credit. Then, the corporation also enters number EA-212 in Schedule A, Part 2, for its share of the amount of environmental remediation insurance premiums a partnership in which the corporation is a partner has deducted in computing partnership income federally, when the partnership is allowed a New York State tax credit for those premiums and a share of the credit flowed through to the corporation.

Note: A corporation that is a qualified entity (or a corporate partner of a qualified entity) in an innovation hot spot must transfer to Form CT-225 the amount of income or gain attributable to the innovation hot spot(s) reported on Form CT-223, Innovation Hot Spot Deduction.

Additional forms – If you have more entries than there are lines in any part, submit a separate Form(s) CT-225 listing the other addition and/or subtraction modifications.

A-110 Qualified emerging technology investments (QETI) – If you elected to defer the gain from the sale of QETI, then you must add to your applicable federal income the amount previously deferred when the reinvestment in the New York qualified emerging technology company (QETC) that qualified you for that deferral is sold. A replacement QETI must be purchased within the 365-day period beginning on the date of sale. Gain is not deferred and must be recognized to the extent that the amount realized on the sale of the original QETI exceeds the cost of a replacement QETI. The gain deferral applies to any QETI sold on or after March 12, 1998, that meets the holding-period criteria. You must add back the gain deferred in the year the replacement QETI is sold.

If you elect the gain deferral, deduct from your applicable federal income the amount of the gain deferral (to the extent the gain is included in federal income). If purchase of the replacement QETI within the 365-day period occurs in the same tax year as the sale of the original QETI, or in the following tax year and before the date the corporation's franchise tax return is filed, take the deduction on that return. If purchase of the replacement QETI within the 365-day period occurs in the following tax year and on or after the date the corporation's franchise tax return is filed, you must file an amended return to claim the deduction. (§§612(c)(34), 208.9(a)(14), and 1503(b)(1)(Q))

If you are reporting a gain for federal tax purposes that was from either:

- property that had a greater adjusted basis for New York State income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes on December 31, 1959 (or on the last day of a fiscal year ending during 1960); or
- property that was held in connection with mines, oil or gas wells, and other natural deposits and that had a greater adjusted basis for New York State income tax purposes than for federal tax purposes when sold;

include on this line the lesser of:

- the gain itself; or
- the difference in the adjusted basis.

(§612(c)(4))
