Empire State Musical and Theatrical Production Credit Tax Law – Sections 24-a and 606(u)

IT-642-I

General information

Tax Law sections 24-a and 606(u) provide for a musical and theatrical production credit. The Empire State musical and theatrical production tax credit is available to taxpayers subject to tax under Article 22 (personal income tax) or Article 9-A (general business corporations). Form IT-642 is for taxpayers subject to tax under Article 22. Those subject to tax under Article 9-A (including New York S corporations) complete Form CT-642, Empire State Musical and Theatrical Production Credit.

The credit is 25% of the sum of the qualified production expenditures and the transportation expenditures.

The amount of credit allowed for the current tax year is allocated by Empire State Development (ESD). ESD will issue a certificate of tax credit showing the:

- certificate number,
- allocation year of the tax credit, and
- amount of tax credit allowed.

Submit a copy of your certificate from ESD. Complete a separate Form IT-642 for each individual certificate issued to you by ESD. You cannot claim the credit before the later of:

- the tax year the production of the qualified musical or theatrical production is complete, or
- the tax year immediately following the allocation year listed on your certificate.

If the amount of the credit allowable for any tax year exceeds the tax for that year, the excess is treated as an overpayment to be credited or refunded. No interest will be paid on the refund.

Qualified production expenditures and transportation expenditures used as the basis for the allowance of this credit or in the calculation of this credit cannot be used to claim any other credits.

For rules and regulations regarding the credit, visit ESD's website (at www.esd.ny.gov).

Eligibility

After receiving a certificate of tax credit from ESD, the following taxpayers, subject to tax under Article 22, are eligible to claim the credit by filing Form IT-642 with their returns:

- Individuals (including sole proprietors);
- Fiduciaries of estates and trusts;
- partners in a partnership (including members of a limited liability company (LLC) if the LLC is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes);
- shareholders of a New York S corporation; and
- beneficiaries of an estate or trust.

Taxpayers subject to tax under Article 9-A must complete Form CT-642.

How to claim the credit

File Form IT-642 if you are an individual, a partnership, or an estate or trust and you qualify for the credit. In addition, if you are a partner in a partnership (including members of an LLC treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes), a shareholder of a New York S corporation, or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, file Form IT-642 to claim your share of the credit from the entity.

An estate or trust that divides the credit among itself and its beneficiaries must submit Form IT-642 with Form IT-205, Fiduciary Income Tax Return, showing each beneficiary's share of the credit.

Partnerships must file Form IT-642 with Form IT-204, Partnership Return, showing the total amount of credit.

An S corporation does not file Form IT-642; it must file Form CT-642. If you are a shareholder of an S corporation that made the election under Tax Law section 660, obtain your share of the S corporation's credit from the S corporation and report it on Form IT-642.
