Business Taxes

General business corporations pay taxes computed under the corporation franchise tax, Article 9-A. Prior to 2015, banks paid under a separate tax article - Article 32. As a result of corporate tax reform and starting in 2015, banks now pay under Article 9-A. Separate taxes apply to insurance companies, including anyone who buys insurance from an insurance company that is not authorized to write insurance in New York State. The utility corporations tax applies to certain transportation and transmission corporations (except airlines), utility companies, telecommunications services, and agricultural cooperatives. In addition, as under federal law, there is a tax on the unrelated business income of nonstock not-for-profit corporations. Finally, a gross receipts tax applies to petroleum businesses.
