

Instructions for Form IT-203-GR

Group Return for Nonresident Partners

General information

A partnership, including a limited liability partnership, limited liability investment company, limited liability trust company, or limited liability company that is treated as a partnership for federal income tax purposes, that has any income derived from or connected with New York sources, may be granted approval to file Form IT-203-GR, Group Return for Nonresident Partners. This form may be filed only if the partnership has 11 or more qualified nonresident partners or members (see below) who elect to file on a group return for each year. Hereafter, partners and members will be collectively referred to as partners. All qualified partners who elect to participate in the group return must have the same accounting period.

A group return is considered a group of individual returns that meet the New York State, Yonkers, and metropolitan commuter transportation mobility tax (MCTMT) return filing requirements. Accordingly, if a qualified partner elects to participate in the group return, the partner is not required to file an individual New York State personal income tax return (including Yonkers nonresident earnings tax and MCTMT) for the year.

Approval to file a group return

A partnership that wishes to file a group return on behalf of its qualified electing partners must request permission to do so by submitting an application on Form TR-99, Application for Permission to File a Group Return. Form TR-99 must be submitted to: NYS Tax Department, Individual Account Resolution, W A Harriman Campus, Albany NY 12227-0822. See Publication 55, Designated Private Delivery Services, if not using U.S. Mail. You must file Form TR-99 no later than 30 days following the close of the initial tax year for which you are requesting to file a group return. See Need help? for information on how to get forms.

After receipt of a properly completed Form TR-99, the Tax Department will determine whether permission will be granted and will notify the partnership accordingly. If approval is granted, the partnership will be issued a special New York State identification number to be used only for filing the group return. The Tax Department's approval to file on a group basis is contingent upon the receipt of the group return for the applicable tax year and is subject to revocation upon audit. An approval to file on a group basis will remain in effect unless it is revoked. Annual approval is not required. However, see Reinstatement, below. In addition, the partnership must maintain at least 11 electing partners in order to continue filing on a group basis.

Note: You must obtain prior approval to file a group return.

If you file a group return without prior approval, the return will be rejected and the participating partners could be subject to late-filing or late-payment penalties, or both.

The approval to file a group return will not be retroactively revoked after the return has been filed simply because the partnership fails to maintain 11 qualified electing partners. For example, if a partnership filed a group return for 13 qualified electing nonresident partners for this tax year, and it is subsequently determined that three of the partners did not qualify to be included on the group return, the approval to file the group return for this tax year will not be revoked. However, approval to continue filing any further group returns for future years will be revoked unless the partnership has 11 or more qualified electing partners for those years.

Reinstatement: If a partnership that has received approval to file on a group basis decides not to file a group return for a particular tax year, it must notify the Tax Department of its decision in writing at the previously stated address. The notice must show the name and address of the partnership and the special New York identification number. In addition, if the partnership wishes to file a group return for a subsequent year, it must request reinstatement of its approval to file a group return. A request for reinstatement must be submitted on Form TR-99. Form TR-99 must be submitted no later than 30 days following the close of the first tax year for which reinstatement is requested.

Group agent and powers of attorney

A partnership that requests approval to file a group return must appoint one partner as the group agent. The group agent must have legal authority to act as an agent in matters relating to the group return, for all partners participating in the return. The group agent is required to sign the group return, and any communications from the Tax Department will be sent to the group agent. Any notices required by law, such as a notice of deficiency or a notice and demand, will be sent to the group agent as well as to the individual partner involved. The group agent will be personally liable for only those penalties relating to making or signing an erroneous, false, or fraudulent return, but only if the agent was actually responsible for the error.

Unless the partnership is exempt (see Exemption, below), Form TR-99 must be accompanied by an individual power of attorney (however, see Note below) for each qualified nonresident partner who the group agent knows, at the time of application, will be participating in the group return. The power of attorney must authorize the group agent to represent the participating partner in the filing of the group return. If, after the application date, an additional partner elects to participate in the group return (or subsequent year's group return), a power of attorney for that partner must be submitted with the first group return on which the partner is included. If a partnership requests reinstatement of approval to file a group return (see Reinstatement, above), the partnership must also resubmit powers of attorney as previously described.

If the partnership changes its group agent, it must notify the Tax Department immediately at the previously stated address. In addition, if the partnership is required to submit powers of attorney as described above, the notice must be accompanied by new powers of attorney for all participating partners (however, see Note, below).

Note: Other evidence that establishes the group agent's authority to act as an agent in making, executing, and filing the group return for the qualified electing nonresident partners, if acceptable to the Tax Department, may be submitted instead of individual powers of attorney. If you wish to submit other evidence, submit a statement with Form TR-99 describing the evidence you wish to submit; the Tax Department will notify you whether or not it is acceptable. The filing of Form DTF-350, Group Affidavit, in accordance with the instructions of that form, is acceptable evidence that may be submitted instead of individual powers of attorney.

Exemption: If the partnership

- requested permission to file a group return before December 31, 1996, and
- had 50 or more qualified electing partners at the time it requested permission to file, then the partnership is exempt from the power of attorney submission requirements previously described. This exemption remains in effect as long as the partnership continues to file a group return each year. However, the group agent must still have legal authority to act as an agent for the participating partners in all matters related to the group return. If a partnership must request reinstatement of permission to file a group return because it failed to file a group return for the prior year(s), it will become subject to the power of attorney submission requirements at that time.

Qualified nonresident partner

A qualified nonresident partner is a partner who meets all of the following conditions:

- The partner must be a nonresident individual of New York State for the entire tax year (a partner that is a trust is not a qualified nonresident partner).
- The partner did not maintain a permanent place of abode in New York State at any time during the tax year.
- Neither the partner nor the partner's spouse has income derived from New York sources other than (1) the partner's distributive share of partnership income with New York additions and subtractions allocated to New York, or (2) other income derived from certain New York sources described below.
- Neither the partner nor the partner's spouse is subject to the New York State separate tax on the ordinary income portion of a lump-sum distribution.
- The partner must waive the right to claim the New York standard deduction or itemized deduction, the New York dependent exemption, any New York State personal income tax credits (see Special rule for credits below), and any carryback or carryover of a New York State net operating loss (NOL) or capital loss (see Special rule for New York State NOL or capital loss below).
- For MCTMT, neither the partner nor the partner's spouse, has net earnings from self-employment allocated to the metropolitan commuter transportation district (MCTD) other than (1) the partner's net earnings from self-employment allocated to the MCTD from the partnership, or (2) net earnings from self-employment allocated to the MCTD from another partnership where the partner is included in that partnership's MCTMT group filing.
- For MCTMT, the partner must waive the $50,000 net earnings from self-employment allocated to the MCTD income threshold for imposing the tax.

Special rule for credits: The partner must waive the right to claim any New York State personal income tax credits that originate in a year for which the partner elects to file on a group return. The partner must also waive the right to claim any carryover to a subsequent tax year(s) of a credit(s) that originated in a year for which the partner elected to file on a group return, whether the partner files on a group return or files an individual personal income tax return for the subsequent tax year(s). Additionally, the partner must waive the right to claim any carryover of a credit(s) on the group return that originated in a year for which the partner filed an individual personal income tax return.

However, if a credit originated in a year for which the partner filed an individual personal income tax return, the partner may claim a carryover of the credit (if applicable), in any subsequent tax year for which the partner files an individual personal income tax return even if the partner filed on a group return for any year or years after the credit was initially claimed. In this instance, a partner must consider any year or years for which the partner filed on a group return for purposes of determining the allowable carryover period for those credits with limited carryover periods.

Special rule for New York State NOL or capital loss: Determine a New York State NOL or capital loss for each partner who has elected to file on a group return in the same manner as if the partner was filing an individual nonresident personal income tax return. Any New York State NOL or capital loss that originates in a year for which the partner elects to file on a group return, or originates in a year for which the partner files an individual personal income tax return, may not be carried back or carried over to a year for which the partner elects to file on a group return. However, the partner may claim any NOL or capital loss carryback or carryover amount in any previous or subsequent year for which the partner files an individual personal income tax return. In this instance, a partner must consider any year or years for which the partner filed on a group return, for purposes of determining the allowable carryback or carryover period applicable to an NOL.

Note: If a nonresident partner incurs an NOL for New York State income tax purposes but does not incur an NOL for federal income tax purposes, the partner may elect for New York State income tax purposes, to waive the carryback period and to carry the NOL forward (on the partner's individual personal income tax return) to each of the allowable years following the tax year of the NOL, to the extent not absorbed. A statement must be submitted with the nonresident group return indicating that the partner is electing to waive the carryback period. The election must be made by the due date of the nonresident group return for the year of the NOL. The election may not be revoked once made. The statement submitted with the nonresident group return must include the name and social security number of each nonresident partner making the election.

Special rules for spouses: If both spouses are partners in the same partnership, both may be included in the group return if they both meet the qualifications described above and both spouses elect to participate. Unless both spouses elect to participate, neither may participate in the group return.

If a partner or partner's spouse has other New York source income only from another partnership, New York S corporation, or professional athletic team that files a group return and (1) the partner or partner's spouse participates in the other group return(s); and (2) the partner or partner's spouse does not participate in more than 10 group returns for the tax year, the partner must be included on the partnership's group return. The partner must also waive the right to claim the allowable exclusion for purposes of the Yonkers nonresident earnings tax if the partner has Yonkers income from more than one source. The partner must also notify each group agent that the partner is included on another group return.

Note: In the case of a partner and a partner's spouse who are both participating in group returns, the 10-group return limitation, and the waiving of the allowable exclusion for purposes of the Yonkers nonresident earnings tax, is determined individually (that is, the partner may participate in up to 10 group returns and the partner's spouse may participate in up to 10 group returns).

Example: A married couple, Pat and Chris, are each partners in different partnerships. Pat participates in group returns for Partnerships A and B and has Yonkers income from both partnerships. Chris participates in a group return for Partnership C and has Yonkers income from Partnership C. Pat is participating in two group returns for purposes of the 10-group return limitation, and must also waive the allowable exclusion for purposes of the Yonkers nonresident earnings tax on the group returns of both Partnerships A and B because Pat has Yonkers income from more than one source. Chris is participating in one group return for purposes of the 10-group return limitation and may claim the allowable exclusion for purposes of the Yonkers nonresident earnings tax since Chris has Yonkers income from only one source.

Electing to participate in the group return

A qualified nonresident partner elects to participate in the group return by informing the group agent that he or she wishes to participate. The election must be made by the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the tax year for which the election is being made. The partner's inclusion in the group return constitutes notice to the Tax Department that the partner is electing to participate in the group return.

A partner who elects to be included in the group return may not change that election after the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the close of the tax year. However, if it is later determined that a partner included in the group return did not meet the definition of a qualified nonresident partner for the tax year, the partner would be required to file an amended return on an individual basis.

A partnership filing a group return must submit with its Form IT-204, Partnership Return, a list showing the name (in either alphabetical or social security number order) and social security number of each partner who will be included on the group return.

Yonkers nonresident earnings tax and MCTMT

If a partnership files a group New York State return and the partnership has income derived from Yonkers sources, or does business within the MCTD, the partnership must also file a group Yonkers nonresident earnings tax return or a group MCTMT return, whichever is applicable. The group Yonkers or MCTMT return must include all qualified nonresident partners who participate in the group state return. If a partner does not participate in the group state return, the partner may not participate in the group Yonkers or MCTMT return.

However, a partnership may file a group Yonkers or MCTMT return even if the partnership is not filing a group New York State return. To be eligible to file a separate group Yonkers or MCTMT return, the partnership must have 11 or more qualified nonresident partners for Yonkers or MCTMT purposes who elect to participate in the Yonkers or MCTMT group return.

A qualified nonresident partner is a partner who meets all of the following conditions:

- The partner must be a nonresident individual of New York State for the entire tax year (a partner that is a trust is not a qualified nonresident partner).
- The partner did not maintain a permanent place of abode in New York State at any time during the tax year.
- The partner has no income derived from Yonkers sources, or net earnings allocated to the MCTD, other than the partner's share of the partnership's net earnings from self-employment allocated to Yonkers or MCTD. (A partner cannot be included on more than one group Yonkers or MCTMT return unless the partnership is also filing a group New York State return.)

A partnership that elects to file only a Yonkers and MCTMT, or MCTMT only, group nonresident return must make application to the Tax Department, appoint a group agent, and submit any required powers of attorney in the same manner that applies for New York State purposes.

If the separate Yonkers or MCTMT election is made, each of the participating nonresident partners will file an individual New York State nonresident income tax return and omit the Yonkers or MCTMT entries on the return. The partner must submit a statement with the return that the Yonkers nonresident earnings tax or MCTMT is being reported separately on a group return filed by the partnership. The statement must also contain the special New York identification number assigned to the partnership.

Sales and use tax

Individual taxpayers may report the amount of New York State and local sales and use taxes that they owe, if any, on their personal income tax return. Sales and use tax cannot be reported on the group return. However, if a qualified nonresident electing partner expects to owe sales and use tax (see the instructions for Form IT-203, Nonresident and Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return), the partner may still be included on the group return, but must also file Form ST-140, Individual Purchaser's Annual Report of Sales and Use Tax, on or before April 15, 2020, to report and pay any sales and use tax the partner owes.

Estimated income tax payments

A partnership that has received approval to file a group nonresident return may also elect to file group estimated tax installments on behalf of its qualified electing partners.

The group installments are filed on Form IT-2105, Estimated Tax Payment Voucher for Individuals. The form must show the name and address of the partnership and the special New York identification number assigned to the partnership. Enter on Form IT-2105 the total state, Yonkers, and MCTMT estimated tax paid on behalf of the group. However, the group agent must maintain records to show that portion of the total that is paid on behalf of each participating partner.

If the 2019 estimated tax payments do not equal at least 90% of the 2019 tax, or 100% of the 2018 tax (110% of that amount if the nonresident partner is not a farmer or fisherman and the New York adjusted gross income on that return is more than $150,000 ($75,000 if married filing separately for 2019)), based on a return covering 12 months, a penalty for underpayment of estimated tax may be imposed. However, a penalty will only be charged if at least $300 of New York State, Yonkers, or MCTMT tax is owed. For more information, see Form IT-2105.9, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals and Fiduciaries, and the instructions for that form (Form IT-2105.9-I).

If a qualified nonresident partner who was included in the group estimated tax decides not to participate in the group return, or if the partnership subsequently decides not to file a group return for the tax year, the group agent should notify the Tax Department no later than February 15 of the year in which the return is due. This notification must contain the following information:

- the name and address of the partnership
- the special New York identification number assigned to the partnership
- the partner's name, address, and social security number
- the amount of estimated tax paid (state, Yonkers, and MCTMT) on the partner's behalf
- a request that the payment or payments be transferred to an individual estimated tax account in the partner's name

If more than one partner included in the group estimated tax will not be participating, the above partner information should be provided for each partner. The notification must be mailed to: NYS Tax Department, Estimated Tax Unit, W A Harriman Campus, Albany NY 12227-0822. See Publication 55 if not using U.S. Mail.

This transfer of estimated tax payments could take two to three weeks to become effective. If the partner files an individual personal income tax return before the transfer becomes effective, the partner will not get credit for these payments when the return is processed, and a tax due notice will be issued to the partner. Therefore, this time period should be taken into account when filing the partner's individual tax return.

If a partner who was included in the group estimated tax notifies the group agent after February 15, 2020, but before April 15, 2020, the group agent should notify the Tax Department immediately, using the procedure described above. In this situation, the individual partner may wish to request an extension of time to file to ensure that the estimated tax payment will be properly credited to the individual's account prior to the individual's return being filed.

Amended return or federal change

To amend a previously filed Form IT-203-GR, complete a new Form IT-203-GR using the corrected information and mark an X in the Amended return box. You must also complete a new Form IT-203-GR-ATT-A, IT-203-GR-ATT-B, and IT-203-GR-ATT-C, as applicable.

An amended group return must be filed if an amended federal return is filed by the partnership, or if a federal audit of the partnership changes any of the partnership items of income, gain, loss, or deduction reported on the original group return. An amended group return must be filed within 90 days of the date the federal amended partnership return is filed, or, in the case of a federal audit, within 90 days after the final determination of the change. Submit a copy of the federal report of examination changes and a signed statement by the group agent indicating that the partnership concedes the federal audit changes. If the partnership does not concede the federal audit changes, submit a signed statement explaining why.

Note: You must complete Form IT-203-GR-ATT-A, and if applicable, Form IT-203-GR-ATT-B and/or Form IT-203-GR-ATT-C, before you can complete lines 1 through 13 of Form IT-203-GR.

Fee for payments returned by banks – The law allows the Tax Department to charge a $50 fee when a check, money order, or electronic payment is returned by a bank for nonpayment. However, if an electronic payment is returned as a result of an error by the bank or the department, the department won't charge the fee.

If your payment is returned, we will send a separate bill for $50 for each return or other tax document associated with the returned payment.

Line 13 – The amount overpaid will automatically be applied to your 2020 estimated tax. This amount cannot be refunded to you.

Signature

This form must be signed by the group agent on behalf of the participating partners.

Paid preparer's signature

If you pay someone to prepare your return, the paid preparer must also sign it and fill in the other blanks in the paid preparer's area of your return. A person who prepares your return and does not charge you should not fill in the paid preparer's area.

Form IT-370 must show the special identification number assigned to the partnership. The partnership must also submit with Form IT-370 a list showing each participating partner's name (in either alphabetical or social security number order), address, and social security number.

Schedules A, B, and C

If you are filing a group New York State return you must complete Schedule A. You must also complete Schedule B if the partnership has income derived from Yonkers, and Schedule C if the partnership does business in the MCTD. Submit the applicable schedules with Form IT-203-GR.

If you are filing a group Yonkers and MCTMT or MCTMT only return, do not complete Form IT-203-GR-ATT-A. However, you must complete Form IT-203-GR-ATT-B and/or Form IT-203-GR-ATT-C, as applicable.

Use as many schedules as you need to list all qualified nonresident partners participating in the group return. Enter the grand totals from all Schedules A, B, or C on the last sheet of each set of schedules.

Note: You may computer generate Schedules A, B, and C provided they conform substantially to the official schedules. Any computer-generated schedules must be in the same format as Schedules A, B, and C and must use a font face and size (#12 or larger) that is easy to read.

Column E – Enter the total of the amounts shown on Form IT-204-IP, column B, lines 12 and 13. Column G – From Form IT-204-IP, enter as a net addition or net subtraction the total amount of additions allocated to New York State from column B, line 20, and the total amount of subtractions allocated to New York State from column B, line 22.
