Claim for EZ Capital Tax Credit

General information

The empire zone (EZ) capital tax credit has expired. For tax years beginning on or after April 1, 2014, you may only claim an EZ capital tax credit carryover from previous years.

You may continue to use any credit carryovers from previous years against your tax liability. However, if your business was required to obtain an EZ retention certificate but was denied one, you will not be eligible to claim the carryover of the credit attributable to investments in a certified EZ business. You do not need an EZ retention certificate to claim carryovers of credit from contributions to community development projects.

The following limitations apply:

- The credit may not reduce the tax imposed by Article 9-A to less than the fixed dollar minimum tax, or the tax imposed by Article 33 to less than the minimum tax of $250.
- The credit may not exceed 50% of the tax imposed by Article 9-A section 209, without regard to any credit.
- For a life insurance corporation, the credit may not exceed the lesser of the following:
 - the tax computed pursuant to Tax Law, Article 33, section 1505(a); or
 - the greater of:
 - the sum of the taxes imposed under Tax Law, Article 33, sections 1501 and 1510; or
 - the amount of tax computed pursuant to Tax Law section 1505(b).
- For life insurance corporations, this credit may not be deducted from the limitation on tax computed pursuant to Article 33 section 1505(a)(2).
- For a nonlife insurance corporation, the credit may not exceed 50% of the taxes imposed under Article 33 section 1502-a, computed without regard to any credit provided for under Article 33.

The credit is not allowed against the metropolitan transportation business tax (MTA surcharge) under Article 9-A or 33.

Any amount of the carryover of credit not deductible in the current tax year may be carried over to subsequent tax years.
