We intend to deny you a 9999 STAR exemption because your 9999 income exceeds $999,999.

For purposes of the Basic STAR program, income is defined as the combined incomes of resident owners and any owner's spouse who resides at the property. Eligibility in 9999 is based on income from the 9999 tax year.

Our records indicate that your income exceeded $999,999 in 9999. That exceeds both the limit for the Basic STAR exemption and the limit for the Basic STAR credit. Therefore, we intend to deny you a 9999 Basic STAR exemption.

You do not need to do anything unless you disagree. If you disagree, send us the following items within 45 days of the date of this notice:

Changes to eligibility

If you become eligible for the Basic STAR program in a future year, you have the option to:

- reapply for the exemption with your assessor if your income is $999,999 or less, or
- register for the STAR credit at the website below if your income is $999,999 or less.

Note: If you become eligible for a STAR benefit again, the amount of the STAR credit may be larger than the STAR exemption savings.
