We intend to deny you a 9999 Enhanced STAR exemption because your 9999 income exceeds $999,999.

For purposes of the Enhanced STAR exemption, income is defined as the combined incomes of all owners (residents and nonresidents) and any owner's spouse who resides at the property. Eligibility in 9999 is based on income from the 9999 tax year.

Our records indicate that your income exceeded the limit of $999,999 in 9999. Therefore, we intend to deny you a 9999 Enhanced STAR exemption.

If you are otherwise eligible, you will receive the Basic STAR exemption because your income is $999,999 or less.

What to do next

You do not need to do anything unless you disagree. If you disagree, send us the following items within 45 days of the date of this notice:

- a copy of this letter, and
- a brief letter of explanation with supporting documentation and your contact information (telephone and email).

Supporting documentation may include 9999 federal or state income tax returns for all owners (residents and nonresidents) and any owner's spouse who resides at the property.

We will notify the assessor if you become income-eligible for the Enhanced STAR exemption in a future year.

Fax or mail this information to us.
