All citations are to New York State Tax Law sections unless specifically noted otherwise.

General information

Who must file this form

You must complete Form CT-225-A, New York State Modifications, and submit it with Form CT-3-A, General Business Corporation Combined Franchise Tax Return, or Form CT-33-A, Life Insurance Corporation Combined Franchise Tax Return, to report certain New York additions to, and certain New York subtractions from, federal taxable income (FTI) that are entered on:

- Form CT-3-A, Part 3, lines 2 and 4
- Form CT-33-A, lines 74 and 83

A combined group with more than one group member, other than the group designated agent (Article 9-A) or parent (Article 33), must also file Form CT-225-A/B, Group Member's Detail Spreadsheet, which is a breakdown, by member, of certain additions and subtractions claimed by each member. A combined group with only one member, other than the designated agent or parent, enters the member's information on Form CT-225-A, column B, and does not file Form CT-225-A/B.

Corporations not filing as a member of a combined group under Tax Law Articles 9-A or 33 must file Form CT-225, New York State Modifications, instead of Form CT-225-A.

General instructions

Form CT-225-A is used to inform the Tax Department which additions to and subtractions from FTI a New York C corporation that is a member of a combined group is reporting, where such additions and subtractions do not have a specific reporting line on Form CT-3-A or CT-33-A. The addition and subtraction modifications are reported on this form using numbers assigned to each modification. Schedule A is used to report additions and Schedule B is used to report subtractions. See New York State addition and subtraction modifications. In either Schedule A or B, Part 1, use the modification number with the prefix of A or S to report modifications generated by the entity filing this Form CT-225-A. In either Schedule A or B, Part 2, use the modification number with the prefix of EA or ES to report that the filer's share of these modifications flow through to the entity filing this Form CT-225-A from a partnership, estate, or trust.

You may have the same modification number listed in both Parts 1 and 2 of either Schedule A or B. For example, a corporation uses addition modification number A-212 in Schedule A, Part 1, for the environmental remediation insurance premium it deducted in computing FTI and for which it is taking a New York State tax credit. Then, the corporation also enters EA-212 in Schedule A, Part 2, for the amount of environmental remediation insurance premiums a partnership in which the corporation is a partner has deducted in computing partnership income federally, when the partnership is allowed a New York State tax credit for those premiums and a share of the credit flowed through to the corporation.

Note: A corporation that is a qualified entity, or a corporate partner of a qualified entity, in an innovation hot spot must transfer the amount of income or gain attributable to the innovation hot spot(s) reported on Form CT-223, Innovation Hot Spot Deduction, to Form CT-225-A. Use subtraction modification number S/ES-216 (see S-216, New York State innovation hot spot deduction).

Additional forms – If you have more entries than there are lines in any part, submit a separate Form(s) CT-225-A listing the addition and/or subtraction modifications.

Line instructions for Form CT-225-A

Form CT-225-A provides a column A for the group designated agent (Article 9-A) or parent (Article 33) and a total group member column B for the other members of the group (if the combined group consists of more than one member, then the amounts in column B are obtained from Forms CT-225-A/B). Columns A and B are then added together, and the result is entered in column C. Enter in column D any intercorporate eliminations. Subtract column D from the subtotal in column C and enter the balance in column E. Do not enter a negative amount in column E. If the result in column E is an amount less than zero, enter 0.

The gain deferral applies to any QETI sold on or after March 12, 1998, that meets the holding period criteria. You must add back the gain deferred in the year the replacement QETI is sold.

Claiming this subtraction represents an irrevocable election. (§208.9(a)(18))

S-501 Taxable refunds or credits of certain taxes – Include any refund or credit of a tax that was previously added back on:

- Form CT-3-A, line 6 (for years prior to 2015) or Form CT-225-A (see A-505), other than taxes paid or accrued to the United States or any of its possessions, territories or commonwealths, other U.S. states or their political subdivisions, and the District of Columbia; or
