

Instructions for Form CT-643

Hire a Veteran Credit

CT-643-I

General information

For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, and before January 1, 2026, eligible taxpayers may claim the hire a veteran credit for hiring and employing qualified veterans.

Eligibility

To be eligible for this credit, you must meet all of the following requirements:

- you are subject to tax under Tax law Article 9-A, 22 or 33;
- you hire a qualified veteran who begins employment on or after January 1, 2014, but before January 1, 2025; and
- you employ the qualified veteran in New York State for twelve continuous and uninterrupted months (the twelve-month period) in a full-time or part-time position. The twelve-month period can span multiple tax years.

You must claim the credit in the tax year in which a qualified veteran completes the twelve-month period of employment.

Employee affidavit

To claim the credit, you must have the qualified veteran complete and sign Form DTF-75, Employee Affidavit for the Hire a Veteran Credit, on or before the date the veteran begins employment. Form DTF-75 is available on the Tax Department website. You must keep the completed Form DTF-75 in your records and make it available to the Tax Department upon request. Do not send it to the Tax Department.

Credit information

The credit is equal to 15% of the total amount of wages paid to the qualified veteran during the veteran's first twelve-month period of employment, but not more than $15,000 for a veteran in a full-time position, or $7,500 for a veteran in a part-time position.

If the qualified veteran is a disabled veteran, the credit is equal to 20% of the total amount of wages paid to the qualified disabled veteran during the veteran's twelve-month period, but not more than $20,000 for a veteran in a full-time position, or $10,000 for a veteran in a part-time position.

Note: This credit is based on the wages paid to the qualified veteran during the veteran's first twelve-month period of employment, and, therefore, may only be claimed once for each qualified veteran.

A taxpayer who uses the hiring of a qualified veteran as the basis for this credit may not use this same hiring as the basis for any other credit allowed under Article 9-A, 22, or 33 of the Tax Law.

A taxpayer who discharges an employee and hires a qualified veteran solely for the purpose of qualifying for this credit is not eligible to claim the credit for any qualified veteran.

The amount of credit allowed cannot reduce the tax due to less than the fixed dollar minimum under Article 9-A or the minimum tax due under Article 33. The credit is not allowed against the metropolitan transportation business tax (MTA surcharge) under Article 9-A or 33.

This credit is not refundable. However, any amount of the credit not used in the current tax year may be carried forward to the following three years.

Definitions

A qualified veteran is an individual who:

- served on active duty or in the reserves of the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Space Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or who served in active military service of the United States as a member of the Army National Guard, Air National Guard, New York Guard, New York Naval Militia, or who served in the active uniformed services of the United States as a member of the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration or the commissioned corps of the United States Public Health Service, and:
 - who was released from active duty by general or honorable discharge, or
 - received a letter issued by the New York State Division of Veterans' Services (NYS DVS) verifying that the veteran meets the character of discharge eligibility requirements for all benefits, programs, and services covered under the Restoration of Honor Act, effective on November 12, 2020; and
- is hired in New York State by a qualified taxpayer and begins employment on or after January 1, 2014, but before January 1, 2025; and
- certifies by signed affidavit, under penalty of perjury, that the veteran has not been employed for 35 or more hours during any week in the 180 day period immediately prior to employment by the taxpayer (see Employee affidavit).

A disabled veteran is an individual who meets the above definition of a qualified veteran and also meets the following qualifications of a disabled veteran as defined in New York State Civil Service Law section 85.1(b):

- the veteran is certified by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or a military department as entitled to receive disability payments upon the certification by the Department of Veterans Affairs or military department for a disability incurred by the veteran in the course of the veteran's service and in existence at the time of hiring; and
- the certificate of the Department of Veterans Affairs states that:
 - the veteran has been examined by a medical officer of the Department of Veterans Affairs within one year of the date of hiring, and at the time of the examination, the disability described in the certificate was found to exist and the disability is rated 10% or more; or
 - whether or not the veteran has been examined by a medical officer of the Department of Veterans Affairs within one year of the date of hiring, a permanent stabilized condition of disability exists to an extent of 10% or more.

A full-time position for the purpose of the credit is a qualified veteran who works for 1,820 or more hours for the twelve-month period.

A part-time position for the purpose of the credit is a qualified veteran who works for at least 1,040 hours but not more than 1,819 hours for the twelve-month period.

Line instructions

Line A – Mark an X in the appropriate box to determine the parts of this form you need to complete.
