Instructions

Note: The executor may be held personally liable for unpaid estate tax up to the value of the assets that were distributed before the New York State estate tax was paid in full. The surviving spouse, all beneficiaries, and any other person in possession of property included in the New York gross estate may be held personally liable for unpaid estate tax up to the value of property received from the estate (NYS Tax Law § 975).

Note: A release of lien is not required if the real property was held jointly by the decedent and the surviving spouse as the only joint tenants. There is no fee for a release of lien.

When to use Form ET-30

Use this form to obtain release(s) of an estate tax lien if you are the appointed executor or administrator of the estate, or the duly authorized representative of the executor, and fewer than nine months have passed since the date of death.

Note: Waivers are not required for the estate of an individual whose date of death is on or after February 1, 2000. However, the need to obtain a release of the estate tax lien before transferring real property remains.

Submit either Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration with the application as proof of your appointment, unless previously submitted. To be acceptable, the letters of appointment must be current and must not restrict the executor from receiving estate assets.

Letters of appointment issued by a court outside New York State are acceptable if the decedent was not a resident of New York State at the time of death, and the court has jurisdiction over the decedent's estate.

Enter the executor's name, address, Social Security number, and telephone number in the area provided. If the estate has more than one executor, enter the information for any executor (preferably one who is a New York State resident) in the area provided, mark an X in the box, and attach a list of the other executors with their addresses, telephone numbers, and Social Security numbers.

When to use forms other than Form ET-30

Use Form ET-706, New York State Estate Tax Return, when the estate is required to file a New York State estate tax return, and either:

1. The estate has not obtained an extension of time to file the estate tax return, and more than nine months have passed since the date of death; or
2. The estate obtained an extension of time to file the estate tax return, and more than 15 months have passed since the date of death (the extension has expired).

Use Form ET-85, New York State Estate Tax Certification, if either of the following applies:

1. The estate is not required to file a New York State estate tax return, and either:
 - a. no executor or administrator has been appointed, or
 - b. more than nine months have passed since the date of death.
2. The estate is required to file a New York State estate tax return, and either:
 - a. fewer than nine months have passed since the date of death, and an executor or administrator has not been appointed; or
 - b. more than nine but less than 15 months have passed since the date of death, and an extension of time to file the estate tax return has been granted.

If the estate is subject to tax, an estimated payment may be required when Form ET-85 is filed.

For information about the New York State estate tax filing requirements, visit our website at www.tax.ny.gov.

The term executor includes executrix, administrator, administratrix, or personal representative of the decedent's estate; if no executor is appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States, executor means any person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent with sufficient knowledge to file an accurate return.

This person may file Form ET-85 or Form ET-706 to obtain a release of lien, and must assume personal liability for all estate taxes that may be due.

Specific instructions

Complete the information requested about the decedent. Please verify that the decedent's Social Security number is correctly entered on the application. Submit a photocopy of the death certificate with the application.

For the estate of an individual who was not a resident of New York State at the time of his or her death, complete Form ET-141, New York State Estate Tax Domicile Affidavit, and attach it to the return.

If a person is authorized to represent the executor regarding the estate, and the executor prefers the department contact that person, enter the name (last name first) of the attorney, accountant, or enrolled agent representing the executor. Also enter the firm's name, address, and telephone number in the areas provided.

If the executor has signed Form ET-14, Estate Tax Power of Attorney, and it is being submitted with this application, attach it to the application and mark an X in the box. Note: Unless a change in representation or authority is being made, Form ET-14 should only be submitted to the department once. You do not have to send the ET-14 in with each estate tax form you file. If Form ET-14 was submitted previously, be sure to indicate the form it was sent in with, and the date that the form was submitted, in the header section of the return.

Complete and attach Form ET-117, Release of Lien of Estate Tax, if a release of lien is needed for real property or a cooperative apartment. Two parcels of real estate can be listed on one form. However, if the real property is located in different counties or a release of lien is needed for more than one cooperative apartment, a separate Form ET-117 must be completed for each county or apartment. The name and address of the executor, or authorized representative, should be entered at the top of Form ET-117 for mailing purposes.
