Instructions

When to file
An application for refund of the mortgage recording tax paid pursuant to Article 11 of the Tax Law must be filed on Form MT-15.1 within two years of the date that the erroneous payment of tax was received by the recording officer.

If, however, a refund is claimed because of the mortgagor’s exercise of the statutory right of rescission, Form MT-15.1 must be filed within the later of the following: two years from the time of payment of the tax or one year from the date the mortgage was discharged.

Where to file
Send your application to:
