Distrain Warrant

◀ The Tax Department will never use the word 'distrain' on its notices.

This warrant has been issued against the above-named debtor(s) because of the tax debt that has not been paid in full. This isn't an arrest warrant. This warrant serves the same function as a court judgment. The State Of New York uses the warrant in collection action, such as garnishment of wages and bank accounts, property seizures, federal tax refund offset, and creation of a property lien. To avoid enforcement, call [REDACTED] by 10/14/2020.

NOTE: Interest will continue to accrue until the $7,740 balance is paid in full.

◀ No mention of tax period the debt is covering

This warrant acts as a judgment against the debtor(s) and is a lien on any property now owned or acquired in the future until the debt is paid in full. This letter has been sent to [REDACTED] and due to the unpaid taxes to State Of New York. Levying procedures will begin within 15 days of its receipt. You must respond by the due date and pay in full, or call [REDACTED] to avoid action.

◀ No mention of how to make a payment other than to call the number provided

- A legitimate letter from the Tax Department or reputable collection agency will include:
- contact information so you can respond to phone calls and letters;
  - provide Tax Department contact information;
  - a complete return mailing address;
  - an option to respond online, by phone, or by mail;
  - a detailed explanation for why it was sent; and
  - an explanation of your rights as a taxpayer.
