Instructions

General information

The empire zone (EZ) capital tax credit has expired; you may only claim an EZ capital tax credit carryover from previous years.

You may continue to use any credit carryovers from previous years against your tax liability. However, if your business was required to obtain an EZ retention certificate from Empire State Development, but was denied one, you are not eligible to claim the carryover of the credit attributable to investments in a certified EZ business. You do not need an EZ retention certificate to claim the carryover of credit from contributions to community development projects.

You cannot:

- use this credit to reduce the tax due to less than the fixed dollar minimum tax, or,
- apply the credit against the metropolitan transportation business tax (MTA surcharge).

Note: The credit may not exceed 50% of the tax imposed by New York State Tax Law § 209, without regard to any credit.

You cannot request a refund for any unused portion of this credit; however, you may carry it forward to future tax years indefinitely.

Line instructions

C corporations: Complete Schedules A and B.

New York S corporations: Do not complete Form CT-602. Shareholders will file Form IT-602, Claim for EZ Capital Tax Credit, to claim a carryover of this credit on their New York State personal income tax returns.
