Certain corporations filing as part of a combined group: Typically, taxpayers filing a combined return file a single Form CT-5.1. However, if for the tax year for which you are requesting an additional extension to file, you are either becoming a member of a new combined group, or being added to an existing group, you must also file Form CT-5.1 separately. Complete the business information section above and line A. Then, mark an X in the box on either line B or C (see Exceptions in the instructions).

- A. Enter the EIN of the combined group's designated agent (CT-3-A filers), or parent (CT-33-A filers) ... A CMB_PARENT_ID
- Note: Failure to include the EIN of the designated agent (or parent) may delay processing of your extension request, and may result in penalties and interest.
- B. If this additional extension request is for the first tax year that you are being included in a new combined group filing a combined return, mark an X in the box CMB_NEW_FRST_IND B
- C. If this additional extension request is for the first tax year that you are being added to an existing combined group filing a combined return, mark an X in the box CMB_EXST_FRST_IND C
