Introduction

Farmers and commercial horse boarding operators can buy certain items and services without paying state and local sales or use taxes. This bulletin:

- identifies what purchases are exempt from tax,
- identifies what purchases are eligible for a refund or credit of tax, and
- describes what exemption or other documents should be used to make these purchases or apply for refunds or credits.

Definitions

The word farming covers many different activities, including:

- agriculture, floriculture, horticulture, aquaculture, viniculture, viticulture, and silviculture;
- stock, dairy, poultry, fruit or vegetable, graping, truck, and tree farming (e.g., maple trees or Christmas trees);
- ranching;
- raising fur-bearing animals;
- operating orchards;
- raising, growing, and harvesting crops, livestock, and livestock products; and
- raising, growing, and harvesting woodland products including logs, timber, lumber, pulpwood, posts, and firewood.

A commercial horse boarding operation is a business that:

- operates on at least seven acres;
- boards at least 10 horses (regardless of ownership); and
- receives $10,000 or more in gross receipts annually from fees generated from:
 - the boarding of horses; or
 - the production for sale of crops, livestock, and livestock products; or
 - both these activities.

A commercial horse boarding operation does not include any operation where the primary on-site function is horse racing.

Farm production begins with the preparation of the soil or other growing medium, or with the beginning of the life cycle for animals. Farm production ends when the product is ready for sale in its natural state. For farm products that will be converted into other products, farm production ceases when the normal development of the farm product has reached a stage where it will be processed or converted into a another product.

Example: Production ends when cattle are ready to be processed into meat; raw milk into butter, cheese or bottled milk; grapes into wine or juice, etc.

Exemption certificates and refunds

To make qualifying purchases, other than motor fuel and diesel motor fuel, without paying sales tax, a farmer or commercial horse boarding operator must fill out Form ST-125, Farmer's and Commercial Horse Boarding Operator's Exemption Certificate, and give it to the seller. See below for special rules for purchases of motor fuel and diesel motor fuel.

Any sales tax paid on a purchase that otherwise qualifies for the exemption can be refunded. See Tax Bulletin How to Apply for a Refund of Sales and Use Tax \(TB-ST-350\).
