We need more information about your New York State income tax return.

We need additional information about the credits claimed for the tax year above.

If you do not respond to this letter within 45 days, we will disallow the Child and Dependent Care Credit and, if claimed, the College Tuition Credit, which may result in a bill or an adjusted refund.

Send us:

- Copies of all documents described below that apply to the credits you claimed.

Information about your children or dependents

For every child or dependent for which you are claiming a credit:

- proof of your relationship to the child or dependent, and
- proof that the child or dependent lived with you for more than half the year.

Acceptable documentation for proof of relationship

- Copies of the birth certificate for each child for whom you are claiming a credit.
- If you are not listed on the child's birth certificate, include documentation showing your relationship to the child or dependent, such as:
 - a copy of your birth certificate, and
 - a copy of the birth certificate of the dependent's parent, to whom you are related.
- If you are claiming a foster child, include a copy of the decree or other court order naming you as the foster parent.

Acceptable documentation for proof of residence

- Documents must include:
 - Your address, your name, and the child's name

- The dates the child lived at the same address as you (must be more than half of the tax year indicated above)
- If the document has the child's name and your address but not your name, you need to send in another document with your name showing the same address.
- Examples of acceptable documents:
 - A letter from the child's doctor or school, on their letterhead, showing the child's name, date of birth, address of record, name of the custodial parent, and time-period covered by the letter
 - Adoption or child placement documents,
 - Court records

Information about your daycare expenses

- Examples of acceptable documents:
 - Copies of cashed checks or money orders that were written to and cashed by the daycare provider
 - Copies of bank statements showing electronic transfers to the daycare provider
 - An itemized statement issued from a licensed daycare provider listing each payment received, and from whom received
 - Copies of cash receipts received from the daycare provider at the time of service that can be verified by the New York State Tax Department
- If you received public assistance for childcare, provide a copy of the placement notice from the Department of Social Services indicating the parent fee and corresponding copies of cashed checks.
- Do not send proof of money paid by someone else (such as a friend or relative) directly to your daycare or childcare provider. Payments made by someone other than you or your spouse do not qualify for the Child and Dependent Care Credit.
- If the child or dependent is over 13 years old, a statement from the treating physician indicating that the child or dependent was unable to care for themselves.

Information about you

- Disability: If you are claiming that you (or your spouse) are disabled, send us a statement from the treating physician indicating that you (or your spouse) are unable to care for themselves.
- Student: If you are claiming that you (or your spouse) are a full-time student, documentation from the school verifying full-time student status.

College tuition

If you claimed either the college tuition credit or the college tuition deduction, send us:

- a copy of Form 1098-T, Tuition Statement, received from the education institution, and
- copies of itemized tuition bills or account statements that support the amount paid.

What to do next

- Keep copies of all the items you send. Do not send us your original documents. We are unable to return them.
- Be sure to complete and include the enclosed Form DTF-973.61, Response to Inquiry, with the material you send us. This form is important because it tells us who you are.
- Do not highlight documentation. Emphasize by underlining or by writing a notation.

You can send us the information in any of the following ways:

Online: Responding online using your Online Services account is the easiest and fastest way to respond. Once you have logged into your account, follow the next steps from the Account Summary page:
