Tax Information Access and Non-Disclosure Agreement

Purpose of this form

This form legally binds those who sign it to comply with the secrecy provisions of the New York State Tax Law and the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Individuals who come into contact with, or otherwise access state or federal income tax information, are subject to the secrecy provisions of the Tax Law and the IRC and are subject to statutory penalties for violating those laws.

It is a crime to access your own, a friend's or a family member's tax information.
Violators are subject to penalties as noted below.

Unauthorized disclosure

Any unauthorized disclosure is a crime punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both. It is unlawful to intentionally disclose tax information such as:

- any information contained in a tax return, report, physical document, or computer file;
- confidential systems information including functional, technical, and detailed systems design and architecture;
- automated analysis techniques, systems developed by the department, audit selection methodologies; and
- vendor products such as software packages.

Unauthorized disclosure includes:

- divulging or making known in any manner the contents disclosed in any report or return required under the Tax Law, including computer files;
- the willful browsing or accessing of taxpayer information by a person not authorized to view it; and
- accessing or viewing taxpayer information without a legitimate business or work-related need.

Violations

New York State Tax Law: Any violation of the secrecy provisions of this agreement is punishable by a fine of up to $10,000, imprisonment up to one year, or both. Corporations may be subject to a fine of up to $20,000. State officers and employees making unlawful disclosures are also subject to dismissal from public office for a period of five years. [Tax Law § 1825]

New York State Penal Law: Any violation of Section 195.00 in relation to misconduct of public servants is punishable by up to one year of imprisonment. Other New York State Penal Law violations may also apply.

Internal Revenue Code: Any violation of the secrecy provisions of this agreement is punishable by a fine of up to $1,000 for each access or unauthorized disclosure, imprisonment of up to one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. [IRC §§ 6103, 7213, and 7213A]
